

LFOP Bookstore News

Volume 15, Issue 11

Nov. 1, 2018

November
Specials

Buy one, get one free on all Holiday items: Fiction, cookbooks, craft books, etc. – second item of equal or lesser value. Also, standard size paperbacks 10 for $1.

September Results

The Bookstore's sales total for September was $823.23, slightly better than last September's $817.33. The Internet Sales group's September profit was $314, just $27 less than last September. The Coordinate Remote Viewing Manual sold for $50. This is not about coordinating all those remotes on your coffee table but about tapping into everyone's inborn capacity 'to see across space and time.' The combined group's total for the first nine months was $14,304.13. This was $915.22 better than the same period last year.

Notes from Dianna....

Maybe by the time you read this, we will have shelves! In any case, please keep the shelves filled, including the free and $.50 shelves so that we have as few books as possible in the back room.

More importantly.....

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Judy's Jottings....

Again, I want to say thanks to all you volunteers who have so patiently worked through the last month while we are waiting for the new shelving. It is my understanding that the shelving was to be shipped on the 15th so, hopefully, by the time I write this message for December, there will be some semblance of order in the back room. A couple notes on changes in the roster: Welcome, Paul Kvasnicka, a new internet sales volunteer. Thanks so much for volunteering your time to the Library Friends of Payson. Also, please note that Kay Davis is on winter leave and will be back to help us in the spring. Thanks, Kay, for helping us these last few months. The Volunteer Holiday Party is scheduled for Friday, December 7th at 4PM. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend. It is always a very festive event and gives us all a chance to visit with volunteers who work different days and shifts.

Meet Judy Lindsay. . . .

Each month, we randomly select and feature one of our valued Bookstore volunteers. This month, please meet Judy Lindsay. Judy was born in Hammond, IN and grew up in Calumet City, IL—an interesting city! There were a number of speakeasies on State Street which had been frequented by Al Capone. After many caught fire and burned, tunnels were discovered that allowed the gangsters to escape when the cops raided the premises.

Judy married shortly after graduating from high school. Her family, with 2 children in tow, moved to Phoenix in 1961. Once her kids entered 1st grade and kindergarten, Judy pursued her own education. She attended Phoenix College, Glendale Community College and graduated from ASU with a degree in Secondary Education. She taught child development and human relationships at Apollo H.S. and Greenway H.S. These classes explained the difference between guidance and discipline. Many students told her that they learned more useful information in her classes than their other classes. While she hoped this was not the case, she would love to know if these young people applied what they had learned when they raised their own kids, or if they reverted back to the parenting style of their parents.

Judy's husband of 23 years passed away last year, and now she is in the process of selling her house and moving to a townhouse where she will have less maintenance. She has lived in Payson for 5 years and volunteers at the hospital with several other Bookstore ladies. Judy has been at the Bookstore since June.

Crafts have always been one of her hobbies, but 3 years ago she discovered oil painting and took classes at the college from Jim Strong. This year she is taking an art class which seems like going back to kindergarten, but she is in fact learning to paint from her own inspiration rather than a picture.

Welcome, Judy, a very interesting lady!

LFOP Library Bookstore
328 N. McLane Road
Payson, AZ 85541

Return Service Requested

